

3rd Munich Banjo-Jam-Camp
9th to 11th october 2009 near lake Chiemsee
nearly sold out!

There are already over 30 sign-ins from Germany, Austria, the Switzerland, Italy and Danemark. As the classes will have 8-10 students each, we highly recommend to soon have a look at www.banjocamp.de and to sign-in, if wanted.

Learning from the pros:
Rüdiger Helbig (D)
Ned Luberecki (USA)
Charles Wood (USA)
John Dowling (UK).

2,5 days of intensive learning, jamming and sozialising with students from all over Europe and instructors from all over the world.

This year the camp for the first time is also opened for flat-picking-guitarists and so will grow to a banjo-jam-camp.

Besides intensive workshops the weekend will include a jamming-night at Friday evening in the camp and a bluegrass-concert at the Theaterfabrik Traunreut with "Rüdiger Helbig & Huckleberry 5" and all the other worldclass banjo-pickers (John Dowling, Charles Wood, Ned Luberecki) on one stage.
