

L.BOW GREASE

feat.

Andy Glandt

hand picked music – bluegrass, country & folk
US Tour Sept.25 – Oct.15, 2008

Dave Jackson – voc, git
Guntmar Feuerstein – voc, mand
Andy Glandt – voc, banjo

Dave Jackson (UK) came to Germany in the 70s, playing in various bands and writing songs, one of which was a hit song for Michael Jackson called "Blame it on the Boogie". Guntmar Feuerstein was very active himself during the 80's writing and producing his own brand of music, playing in bands and also landing in the German Hit Parade.

Laid back or fast 'n' furious, funny, ironic, and positively bursting with creativity and enthusiasm in what they play is part of their trademark.

On stage Dave Jackson and Guntmar Feuerstein perform their music together with one of the most well known German banjo players, Andy Glandt. Andy is a banjo virtuoso who promotes and explores American traditional Bluegrass music in its unique interpretation across European countries. He is one of the most acclaimed representatives of Bluegrass music in Germany and Europe and a highly respected international musician and entertainer.

Dan Hays - Executive Director of International Bluegrass Music Association says:

"Andy has created his own authentic style of music by combining the music of his native land with the influence of American acoustic folk and bluegrass. He has made noteworthy achievements in promoting bluegrass music worldwide and has regularly appeared in conjunction with virtually every major bluegrass artist touring today."

British Bluegrass News, UK:

"... Andy Glandt on banjo is one of the best musicians you will find anywhere."

Andy also performs for children in German and English language. He has released 8 CDs with different bands and solo and he is included on several sampler CDs including Banjo Influences.

L.BOW GREASE CD releases: Debut CD "Pickin' on the Porch" (ruhrfolk 4003) truly shows of the unique talent of this Singer Songwriter Duo.

With their new album „Greased Lightning“ (ruhrfolk 4004) L.BOW GREASE easily bridge the gap between Celtic and American folk as well as traditional music and modern pop. Supported by a string of skilled guest musicians out of the bluegrass and Irish folk scene evolved a fascinating acoustic album. „Greased Lightning“ CD is packed full of hard driving bluegrass, sentimental love songs, ironic and witty music hall tunes and moving folk ballads – a variation of original songs which cover the whole spectrum of acoustic orientated music. Besides their own self penned material the old Rolling Stones hit Honky-tonk Women jumped on board to join L.BOW GREASE on their musical voyage.

L.BOW GREASE go back to the roots and play their songs with ease and virtuosity along with strong vocals and a great sense of humour and fun.

Contact:

L.BOW GREASE c/o Kopfhörer Studio, Harpener Feld 11, D-44805 Bochum, Germany, info@lbowgrease.de , www.lbowgrease.de

Andy Glandt, Emil-Wölk-Str.29, D-07747 Jena, Germany, +49-3641-331001
info@andy.glandt.com, www.andy.glandt.com