PLAYING CONDITIONS AT LA ROCHE BLUEGRASS FESTIVAL 2020

La Roche Bluegrass Festival deals directly with acts that are invited to play the festival as headliners. For other acts travelling from Europe, please be aware that no fees are paid to bands above the conditions stated below:

Travel allowance

Bands will be paid a travel allowance of 0.35 €/km (0.30 in 2017) from home address of band leader to La Roche and back as calculated by google maps (2 ways). One car per band

School Accommodation

Performing bands can stay for free for up to 4 nights (Thursday thru Sunday) in one of our 2 partner schools (breakfast included).

Rooms sleep 2 – 5 people. Bathrooms are shared.

Sheets, pillows, towels and blankets are not provided.

Bands may invite one partner/spouse per musician at the price of 12€ / night / guest, with breakfast included. These costs may be deducted from expenses paid to bands as they leave.

Due to numbers attending the workshop and reduced bed availability in the schools, accommodation during the week before the festival is not possible.

There is also a festival campsite not far from the festival for those who prefer (from Monday to Monday).

The festival does not cover accommodation for musicians choosing other sleeping arrangements.

Meal tickets

The festival offers a daily allowance of meal tickets for performing musicians and their registered guest for use on the festival site. The tickets can be used to purchase hot and cold meals prepared on the festival site (including vegetarian), beer, wine and soft drinks - but not for Champagne and sparkling wines.

They are given out each day at band reception on the festival site.

Street Festival bands are offered a free meal (musicians only) by the host bar at time of set.
